PRACTICE RESUMED

G. U. Team Runs Through Light Signal Drill.

Regular practice was resumed a Georgetown yesterday afternoon, nearly the whole 'varsity squad, those who got in the game against Virginia Saturday being on hand. Neither Barriceno, Car ter, nor Bergin at ends were out, and Walsh did not don a suit, although he was on the field receiving instructions from Coach Neilsen. Because of a lack of men in the extreme position, Sitterding was pressed into service after Hegarty had made an early return to the gymnasium, Jamison being used in Barricello's place. Only the lightest kind of signal work was gone through, more to go the stiffness out of the men, and after this every member of the squad went around the track at a pretty fast clip for a mile. Dunn was out in a suit for the first time in two weeks, and although he may not play against V. M. I. next Saturday, still it is probable that he will be in good shape for Lehigh on Thanks-giving Day and may be much needed, too, since the Pennsylvanians have a very heavy team, especially in the back field, and the Hilltoppers will need Dunn to bring up the weight of their men back of As scrimmage may be renewed this after, Charlie Cox will issue a call for his second team, which was temporarily dis-banded last week, and which was a great factor in whipping the Hilltoppers into shape for last Saturday's contest. Emory Hodgson, a former Georgetown player and later captain of V. M. I., was on the field yesterday afternoon watching the practice and incidentally congratuating all hands on their fine showing against Virginia, the score of which is now painted in big black letters. on the college wall to the north of the field and in a very conspicuous place.

DATES OF CAPITAL INDOOR MEETS

Local athletes will be pleased to note that three sanctions have been granted by Chairman of the Registration Committee Joseph J. Rattaliata for Indoor track and field games. The first set will be held in Washington, D. C., on February 4, under the auspices of the George Washington University, while the second and third affairs will also be held in the Capital City under the direction of the Federal Games Association and the Georgetown University, the former on February 18 and the latter on March 4.

SALE OF TROTTERS FEATURE OF SHOW

Winans Buys Prize Winners from Stotesbury.

New York, Nov. 15 .- All went well at the National Horse Show to-day, with spirited contests at every session and nothing in the way of protest to mar the sporting zest of the contest.

Walter Winans figured in the day's proeedings as the buyer of E. T. Stotesbury's trotting roadsters, Lugano and Como, winners of the championship for pacers at the last New York show and at the International in London. The price was not stated, and the guesses as to what he paid range from $5,000 to five imes that amount.

Willy (2:07 1-2), the Austrian bred trotter, owned by Louis W. Winans and sent to this country to be campaigned this season, won the blue ribbon, A. C. Miss Cherbonniere Rides.

L. von Klein, Mrs. Beile Beach Bain, Mrs. Julian Morris, Miss Rasmussen, Miss Coulston, of Ottawa; Mrs. Adam Beck, and Mrs. Tiernan were among the riders and some went around on several horses.

There were many clips and knockeddown hurdles, but no accidents. The best piece of riding was done by Mrs. Klein, who was mounted on Bally Hooles. Mrs. Klein kept her seat well. Mrs. Bain rode Initial, the horse that fell on George Watson, who was killed recently. Keggy Comer was the winner.
